

Utica

Macomb County, Michigan

Located in west-central Macomb County along the banks of the Clinton River, the City of Utica is one of the oldest settlements in the region.

During the period from 1960 to 1980 Utica experienced the largest influx of residents and new home construction. Today 4,577 persons reside in Utica enjoying its small town atmosphere and close proximity to major retail and employment centers. Year-round recreation opportunities can be found nearby at River Bend Park and Stony Creek Metropark.

Located adjacent to Hall Road (M-59) and M-53, Utica is linked with all the region's major freeways and is readily accessible from all points within Macomb County. Conrail operates a rail line connecting Utica to the largest industrial corridor in southern Macomb County as well as the North American rail system.
